BEFORE MARRIAGE

One question. Two honest answers.

Choose one topic: children, money, home, work, family, faith or disagreement. Each person writes first; compare without rushing to agree.

The question we are discussing today

One voice

Name

What I want, and why

The other voice

Name

What I want, and why

After listening	Our short notes
What is agreed	What is agreed
What remains open	What remains open
Information / source to consult	Information / source to consult

One next conversation

What will we return to?

When suits both of us?

What will we each bring?

Keep an open answer open. This page does not measure whether a couple should marry.