CLOSING THE DISTANCE

Two places. Two lives to consider.

Compare ordinary weeks in two realistic locations. Include what each person needs to work, stay connected and make independent choices.

Location A — a real option

Location B — a real option

Everyday life	Location A	Location B
Work / study What can each person do?	Work / study in A	Work / study in B
Home / costs Housing and ordinary spending	Home / costs in A	Home / costs in B
My own life Money, transport, time alone	My own life in A	My own life in B
Our connections Family, friends, familiar routines	Our connections in A	Our connections in B
Needs checking Official source or qualified advice	Needs checking in A	Needs checking in B

What we will check before deciding

One question we need answered first

Who will find out?

Official source / adviser

When will we revisit?

What could we change or reverse if this plan did not fit?

Unknown means unknown. A location preference does not establish permission to live or work there.
