PERSONAL MATCHMAKING

A little clarity.
A useful next step.

YOUR PRACTICAL COMPANION

Before the date. After the conversation.

Keep your hopes beside what you actually hear.

Complete the first half before a date or call. Return to the second half afterwards, while the conversation is fresh.

BEFORE

My honest starting point.

The relationship I hope to build

Time and attention I can offer

What I am still working out

AFTER

What the conversation told me.

What they said they want

Something we seem to share

Something I still need to ask

CHOOSE

The next step I want to suggest.

Another conversation, a specific question or a kind closing

An intention is a direction. Exclusivity, a visit or a larger commitment needs a separate agreement.
